

Travel

10JAN
5:33 UTC

India Tactical: Traffic measures announced near Silk Board Junction in Bangalore from January 10; allot for disruptions

Current Situation:

- The authorities issued a traffic advisory in Bangalore on account of the installation of metro pillars on Silk Board Junction on Outer Ring Road from January 10 until further notice.
- Vehicles traveling from Marathahalli towards Banashankari via Silk Board Junction are advised to take a right turn at 14th Main Hosur Sarjapura Road (HSR) Junction and proceed via Automart Junction, Aishwarya Junction, Krupanidhi Junction, and Bannerghatta Road.
- Vehicles traveling from Marathahalli towards Hosur Road via Silk Board Junction are advised to take a left turn at 5th Main HSR Junction and proceed via Mangammanapalya Road to reach Hosur Road.
- Vehicles traveling from Rupena Agrahara towards HSR 5th Main via Silk Board Junction are advised to proceed via Silkboard flyover, take a right turn at Madiwala Police Station Junction, and continue via Krupanidhi Junction, Aishwarya Junction, and Automart Junction.
- Vehicles traveling from 29th Main Junction towards HSR 5th Main via Silk Board Junction are advised to take a left turn at Silk Board Junction, then take a right turn at Madiwala Police Station Junction and proceed via Krupanidhi Junction Aishwarya Junction, and Automart Junction.
- The full advisory can be found here.

Source: DCP Bangalore Traffic

Recommendations:

Those operating or residing in Bangalore on January 10 and the coming days are advised to allot for disruptions in the vicinity of the Silk Board Junction due to the slated traffic measures.