Egypt Tactical: Port Tawfiq in Suez Governorate closed during afternoon hours of December 15 due to inclement weather conditions; allot for disruptions

Please be advised:

- The Red Sea Ports Authority announced the closure of Port Tawfiq in Suez Governorate due to inclement weather conditions during the afternoon hours of December 15.
- Furthermore, the Egyptian Meteorological Authority released a warning that moderate to heavy rain and strong winds are expected in several parts of the country, including in Suez Governorate, from December 15 until December 17.

Recommendations:

1. Those conducting business through or planning to dock at Port Tawfiq on December 15 and over the coming days are advised to compensate for possible delays in operations, including delivery delays.
2. Remain apprised of weather forecasts and notifications issued by the Red Sea Ports Authority and find alternative options for ports for the coming days in light of the closure and potential continuing disruptions due to inclement weather conditions.
