Israel Tactical: Anti-government protests slated in Tel Aviv, Jerusalem on February 15; maintain heightened vigilance

Current Situation:

Anti-government activists have called for protests at several locations across Tel Aviv and Jerusalem during evening hours (local time) on February 15.

Tel Aviv:

- The “Bring Them Home” protest group has scheduled a demonstration at Hostages Square on Shaul HaMelech Street at 20:00, demanding the return of all hostages.
- Anti-government protesters will march from HaBima Square at 18:45, concluding at Begin Gate.
- Additional protests calling for the return of hostages and organized under the “Democracy March” tagline are planned at Shaul HaMelech Street and Huberman Street at unspecified times.
- The ultra-Orthodox community has announced a protest against the conscription law at Bnei Brak’s Givat Shmuel interchange, also known as the Coca-Cola Interchange.
- A separate demonstration demanding the release of hostages and accountability from Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu is scheduled at Herzliya’s City Hall at 19:30.

Jerusalem:

- Anti-government groups have planned a protest march demanding the release of all hostages, beginning at Zion Square at 19:30 and heading to Paris Square.
- Additionally, a 24-hour vigil is set to take place outside the Prime Minister's residence (Beit Aghion) on Balfour Street.
