MENA Tactical: Pro-Palestinian protests slated in Jordan, Turkey on February 6-7; maintain heightened vigilance

Current Situation:

- Pro-Palestinian activists have called for protests in Jordan and Turkey on February 6-7 to express solidarity with Palestinians and condemn US President Donald Trump's recent remarks about the US "takeover of the Gaza Strip."
- In Turkey, activists from the "Anatolian Youth Association in Istanbul" (AGD) have called for a demonstration in front of the US Consulate in Istanbul at 22:00 (local time) on February 6.
- In Jordan, the "National Forum for Supporting the Resistance and Protecting the Homeland" has called for a protest march at Amman's Grand Hussein Mosque on February 7 after Friday afternoon prayers.

Recommendations:

1. Those operating or residing in Jordan and Turkey on February 6-7 are advised to maintain heightened vigilance and allot for disruptions in the vicinity of the aforementioned areas due to the slated protest.
2. American and Israeli citizens and Jewish individuals are advised to maintain a low profile in public sphere and to avoid revealing their identity and religious and political inclinations.
