

Crime

18

FEB
12:53 UTC

Israel Tactical: One injured in motorcycle explosion of criminal background on Tel Aviv's Shoken Street during late afternoon hours on February 18; maintain heightened vigilance

Current Situation:

- During the late afternoon hours (local time) of February 18, the Israel Police stated that it received reports indicating that a motorcycle explosion of criminal background had occurred on Tel Aviv's Shoken Street.
- One individual has been moderately injured. Israel's Magen David Adom (MDA) is providing treatment to the individual.
- Authorities are currently operating at the incident locale and conducting an investigation.

Source: Israel Police

Recommendations:

Those operating or residing in Israel during the late afternoon hours are advised to maintain heightened vigilance near Tel Aviv's Shoken Street due to the reported incident and ongoing security operations.

