Assessments & Forecast:

The turnout at the slated protest is expected to range in the low-to-mid dozens, reflecting the mobilization capacity of the organizing groups. As part of standard protocol, the authorities are likely to bolster security measures, including the deployment of personnel and the installation of barricades in the vicinity of Jacaranda Square to monitor the gathering. The demonstration is expected to transpire peacefully, given prior police clearance of the event. Localized disruptions to pedestrian and vehicular traffic can be expected in the vicinity of the aforementioned location due to the expected turnout and associated security measures on April 4.

Recommendations:

Those operating or residing in Sydney on April 4 are advised to allot for disruptions to travel in the vicinity of Sydney Olympic Park due to the slated protest.
