

Militancy/Terrorism

07
JUN
8:18 UTC

Israel & Palestinian Territories Alert (UPDATE): Manhunt ongoing for perpetrator of suspected terrorist shooting near Kochav Yair during morning hours on June 7; continue avoiding all travel

CLICK HERE TO VIEW PREVIOUS REPORT

Current Situation:

- Security forces have detained the perpetrator of the shooting incident in Kochav Yair, with a manhunt ongoing for the second perpetrator as of the morning hours (local time) on June 7.
- The Israel Defense Forces (IDF) defined the incident as a terrorist attack.
- A terrorist infiltration alert has been activated in Tzur Yitzhak and residents have been instructed to remain locked in their homes until further notice.
- At least four individuals have reportedly been wounded in several shooting incidents in Kochav Yair, Tzur Yitzhak, and Tzur Natan, while another succumbed to his injuries.
- A shooting was also recorded in the Israeli community of Salit, in the West Bank.

Source: IDE, Kan

Recommendations:

1. Those operating or residing in Israel on June 7 are advised to continue avoiding all travel to the vicinity of Kochav Yair, as well as on the nearby Highway 6, given security forces' ongoing manhunt one of the perpetrators.
2. Those in Tzur Yitzhak are advised to shelter in place given the ongoing suspicion of a terrorist infiltration. Adhere to authorities' instructions.